A policy once returned shall not be revived, reinstated or restored at any point of time and a new proposal will have to be made for a new policy.

D. Grace Period: Grace period of 30 days from the premium due date is available for payment of premiums.

E. Discontinuance of Premiums: If the due premium is not paid within the end of the grace period, the policy shall lapse without value and the policy benefits shall cease.

F. Revival of a Lapsed Policy: A policy which has lapsed due to discontinuance of premiums may be revived subject to the following terms and conditions:

- Application for revival must be made within two years from the date of lapse and before the completion of the policy term.
- All due and unpaid premiums shall be payable with the interest thereon. Such rate of interest on late payment of premiums shall be determined by the company from time to time.
- The company may carry out fresh underwriting upon revival, and may require the life insured to undergo fresh medical examinations.
- The revival of a policy may be on terms different from those applicable before the policy lapsed. The company reserves the right to refuse to revive the policy. If the company refuses to revive the policy, the premiums paid towards revival of the policy shall be refunded without interest.

G. Alterations: Sum assured and policy term cannot be altered.

H. No policy loans are available. The premiums mentioned in this document are indicative.

I. Section 41 of the Insurance Act, 1938: No person shall allow or offer to allow, either directly or indirectly, as an inducement to any person to take out or renew or continue an insurance in respect of any kind of risk relating to lives or property in India, any rebate of the whole or part of the commission payable or any rebate of the premium shown on the policy, nor shall any person taking out or renewing or continuing a policy accept any rebate, except such rebate as may be allowed in accordance with the published prospectuses or tables of the insurer

Provided that acceptance by an insurance agent of commission in connection with a policy of life insurance taken out by himself on his own life shall not be deemed to be acceptance of a rebate of premium within the meaning of this sub-section if at the time of such acceptance the insurance agent satisfies the prescribed conditions establishing that he is a bona fide insurance agent employed by the insurer.

Any person making default in complying with the provisions of this section shall be punishable with fine, which may extend to five hundred rupees.

J. Non-Disclosure: Section 45 of the Insurance Act, 1938: No policy of life insurance effected before the commencement of this Act shall after the expiry of two years from the date of commencement of this Act and no policy of life insurance effected after the coming into force of this Act shall, after the expiry of two years from the date on which it was effected be called in question by an insurer on the ground that a statement made in the proposal for insurance or in any report of a medical officer, or referee, or friend of the insured, or in any other document leading to issue of the policy, was inaccurate or false, unless the insurer shows that such statement was on a material matter or suppressed facts which it was material to disclose and that it was fraudulently made by the policyholder and that the policyholder knew at the time of making it that the statement was false or that it suppressed facts which it was material to disclose.

Provided that nothing in this section shall prevent the insurer from calling for proof of age at any time if he is entitled to do so, and no policy shall be deemed to be called in question merely because the terms of the policy are adjusted on subsequent proof that the age of the life insured was incorrectly stated in the proposal.

K. Service Tax & other duties: As per the Service Tax Laws, service tax & other statutory levies are applicable. Any other indirect tax or statutory levy becoming applicable in future may become payable by you by any method we deem appropriate including by levy of an additional monetary amount in addition to the premium.
